Dr. Hagan, the editor of the Reno Evening Leader, says that he would vote for the editor of the Appeal, provided he was first hung to a lamp post. We cannot possibly conceive of Dr. Hagan supporting either a man or a measure that wasn't already dead.

We understand that an effort is being made in Austin to organize a Republican county central committee. The object and the need of a Republican central committee in Austin is beyond our comprehension. Who will join?—R. V. Little.

Bryan's triumphant march to New York has been as much of an eye opener to the Republicans as Sherman's march through Georgia. He is going right through the enemy's country and he is going to win.

Some days ago Senator Stewart publicly called upon Senator Thurston of Nebraska to prove the charges made by him that Bryan was the aid agent of the silver syndicate. So far Thurston has remained silent.

A patent medicine concern in Elkhart, Indiana, is sending out a circular declaring that if the "free silver" candidate Bryan is elected in November, they will cancel all contracts. Good. The papers will be cleaned of so much nauseous reading matter and thousands of good silver dollars be kept by the people for a better purpose. "What fools these patent medicine men are." They are beginning to believe they have the same privilege to dictate how the people shall vote, that the banks and insurance companies have assumed.—Sierra Valley Record.

A bottle of Trib should be in every household. It cures sprains.
